FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Farm Heritage Conservancy's sixth annual Southern Maryland Sunflower Festival in full bloom August 31 & September 1, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Benedict, Maryland – The Farm Heritage Conservancy (FHC) will hold their Southern Maryland Sunflower Festival at Serenity Farm in Benedict on Saturday, August 31 and Sunday, September 1. The annual festival features local artists and vendors, food trucks, local breweries, and six acres of glorious sunflowers in full bloom.

The Farm Heritage Conservancy is proud to celebrate its sixth year of the Southern Maryland Sunflower Festival at Serenity Farm. Enjoy festival activities included with the entry ticket such as free hayrides, a petting pen, face-painting, music, and photo opportunities galore! Sunflower picking and build-your-bouquet are also included in the ticket price. Bring your own shears! Food, beverages, vendors, art, and market items will be available for purchase. No outside food, please. Leashed dogs welcome!

The Festival is held every Labor Day weekend; this year, on Saturday, August 31 & Sunday, September 1, 2024, from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. Presale tickets will be available starting June 1 through Brown Paper Tickets for $10.00 per person (plus an additional BPT fee per ticket). Children 7 & under are FREE.

Tickets are also available on the day of for $15.00 per person at the festival gate.

The Farm Heritage Conservancy is a 501 (c)3 nonprofit committed to engaging, informing, and inspiring the public as we build on the unique heritage that is Southern Maryland. Through our diverse projects, we provide leadership in agricultural preservation, cultivate the land in service to our community, and engage with visitors in the dynamic historical significance of our region.
